BON BINI TO CURAÇAO!

Part of the Lesser Antilles island group, Curaçao is a constituent country of the Netherlands. Together with sister islands Aruba and Bonaire, it forms a trio known as the ABC Islands.

Bon Bini means 'Welcome' in Papiamentu, the most-widely spoken language on the ABC islands. Papiamentu is a creole language with mixtures of Portuguese and Dutch.

Curaçao is known for its rugged natural beauty and incredible underwater experiences – with over 70 known dive spots. The capital city of Willemstad is a UNESCO world heritage site. Don't miss their city's colorful shops in the Punda district or the Queen Emma Bridge, a swinging pontoon bridge.
