Ketchikan Ward Cove Port

HOW TO GET TO DOWNTOWN

Ships dock at the new Port of Ward Cove. Busses & shuttles transport to downtown about 7 miles away.

WELCOME TO KETCHIKAN

The Salmon Capital of the World, where all 5 species of wild Pacific salmon return to the waterways to spawn just as they did in 1885 when the city was founded. Ketchikan's average rainfall, locally called liquid sunshine, is more than 200 inches, so bring your waterproof gear ashore. Whether you decide to explore the wilderness of the 2.3 million-acre Misty Fjords National Monument, cultural attractions like Totem Bight State Historic Site and Saxman Native Village, or stay in town for a stroll along the historic Creek Boardwalk Street, this picturesque fishing village with a strong native influence will surprise you with its artistic soul and lush nature.
