

WELCOME TO KETCHIKAN

The Salmon Capital of the World, where all 5 species of wild Pacific salmon return to the waterways to spawn just as they did in 1885 when the town was founded. Ketchikan's average rainfall—locally called liquid sunshine—is over 200 inches, so bring your waterproof gear ashore. Whether you decide to explore the great outdoors of the 2.3 million-acre Misty Fjords National Monument, or cultural attractions like Totem Bight State Historic Site and Saxman Native Village, or stay in town for a stroll along the Creek Street historic boardwalk, this scenic fishing village with a strong Native influence will wow you with its artistic soul and lush wilderness.

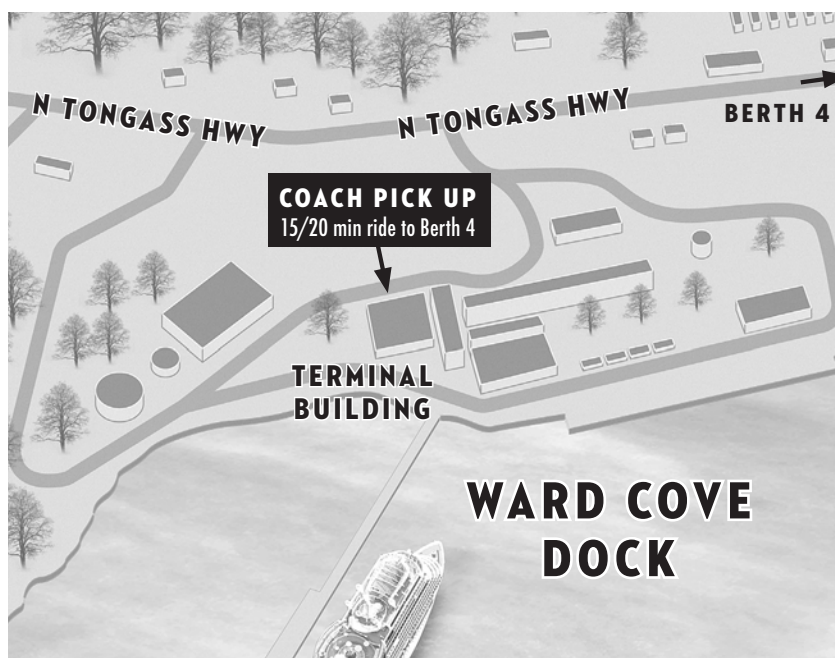

HOW TO GET TO DOWNTOWN
