WELCOME TO QUEBEC

Bienvenue to Canada's 2nd largest port with 400 years of history and a French joie de vie heritage that defines the metropolis. Near the port, stop in Lower town to shop North America's first retail street, Le Quartier Petit-Champlain, and explore Place Royale. Take the funicular to the cobblestoned streets of Upper Town, a UNESCO site, for landmarks like Place d'Armes, Place de l'Hôtel de Ville, Dufferin Terrace and Château Frontenac, where Roosevelt, Churchill, and King once convened on war strategy. Taste the local spirit with poutine, made with french fries, cheese curds, and go on a nature adventure at Montmorency Falls—1 1/2 times taller than Niagara.
