WELCOME TO SITKA

The small harbor town and commercial fishing hub is distinctive with Russian architecture and Tlingit traditions. Take it in at the onion dome of St. Michael's Orthodox Cathedral, or along the Totem Trail in Sitka National Historical Park. From your vacation destination on the Baranof Island (not accessible by vehicles) the Tongass National Forest calls to nature lovers, as does Sitka Sound and Mount Edgecumbe, the dormant volcano towering from the other side. Adventure seekers love the kayaking, fly-fishing, rafting, biking and hiking. Take it to the extremes with ATVs or cave exploration. Make sure to make time for some of the top shops on Lincoln Street while you're in town.

2. BAYVIEW PUB, LLC

See you at The Pub!!!!!!

At The Bayview Pub, it's not just about great food and drinks; but creating memorable experiences. This is a family business owned and operated by Tony and Patricia. Trained as a chef in San Francisco and honing his skills in Copenhagen, Tony, owner and Chef, envisioned a place where high-quality food meets a welcoming atmosphere. The spectacular views are as impressive as their menu offering the best in Alaskan fare. Their Chowder is amazing - 24 Taps of beer, exotic burgers such as the beast burger with wild boar bacon and their Halibut Fish and chips is one of my favorites. When you eat in Sitka, this is the place to go!
