WELCOME TO SYDNEY

A friendly vibe, Scottish heritage and mix of 50 ethnicities greet guests to Cape Breton Island's largest city. Sydney invites all with cultural charm at the world's largest fiddle that's 60 feet tall. The Big Fiddle—a perfect photo op—honors the Celtic and folk influence. Live music fills the streets, often from local shops and waterfront restaurants on the wooden boardwalk. Pubs serve flights of beer and cider, along with fresh mussels and signature oatcakes. From there, 1700's houses and churches dot the historic town. Step back in time at the Fortress of Louisbourg or A. Graham Bell's summer residence. Or do the outdoors at the famed Cabot Trail or Cape Breton Highlands Park.
